Even if you delete the game application from your phone or do not join Teen Patti again, the past game results are not be deleted. Security. Octro will take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure or unauthorized alteration. By downloading any Octro software or creating an account or accessing or using the Service you accept and agree to be bound by these Terms of Service.

GRANT OF A LICENSE TO USE THE SERVICE

Subject to your compliance with Terms of Service, Octro grants you a revocable, non-exclusive limited license to access and use the Services. This license is non-transferable. You agree to use the Service for your own non-commercial purposes. You play some Octro social games to win chips, which is virtual currency or virtual money. You do not play with real money. The chips you lose or win have no value in real money. At times you may “earn” or “buy or purchase” virtual currency and virtual in-game items. These virtual currency and items do not refer to any credit balance of real currency or its equivalent. Octro reserves the right to terminate the license of any user without giving any reason. If Octro believes that a user has acquired chips from unauthorized sources and from sources that violate the terms of the service, it has right to take away all or a part of the total chips with the user. Downloading any of Octro games is free. Octro gives you free chips to begin with and regularly. This gives you limited license to play the game (for example, Teen Patti). If you do not lose all your free chips, you can play the game for unlimited period. If you lose your free chips, you can not play Teen Patti. However, you have option to buy chips and join the game. The chips that you buy and the chips that you win have no value in the real currency. If you do not want to play the game any more, the chips remaining with you have no value in real money but instead constitutes a measurement of the extent of your license. These chips are not transferable. Chips are sold by iTunes Store (Apple), Google Play and Facebook. Octro, Inc does not sell chips or collect any payment on behalf of Apple, Google or Facebook. No other party is authorized to sell the chips. By accepting to use Octro’s game application, you fully understand and agree that you can lose chips because of many reasons beside losing while playing the game. Some of the reasons are client’s data connection, Internet connection, improper behaviour of the client (game app), Octro, Inc. server problem, sudden increase in traffic, someone else using your account or your account is hacked and many more. Octro Inc, its subsidiaries and associates are not liable for any loss of chips due to functioning as well as malfunctioning of its servers and software including Indian Rummy and Teen Patti. Winning a hand of Teen Patti chiefly depends upon the cards you get. When you download Teen Patti or Indian Rummy by Octro, you accept and agree to play it only for fun and entertainment and Octro Inc. is not liable for any damage or loss or what so ever.
